ORDER

The admission of candidates for PG Degree Programmes through Centralized Allotment Process commences from 06/06/2019. The allotment is given on the basis of details furnished by the candidates online. The genuineness of the above details can be ascertained only at the time of admission of the candidates to the allotted colleges concerned.

Sanction has therefore been accorded by the Registrar to the following guidelines being issued to the Principals of the affiliated colleges for strict compliance at the time of reporting for admission by the candidates allotted through CAP.

1. Ensure that the candidate possesses the eligibility prescribed by the University for the programme to which he/she has been allotted.
2. Verify the following documents and ensure that there are no discrepancies in the grade/marks of the candidate furnished by him/her at the time of online registration.
 - a. The Allotment Memo downloaded from the website.
 - b. Certificate to prove date of birth.
 - c. Transfer Certificate (TC) from the Institution last attended and Conduct Certificate.
 - d. Grade card/ Marklists of all parts of the Degree examination and Provisional/Degree Certificate.
 - e. Eligibility /Equivalency Certificate from Mahatma Gandhi University, in the case of candidates who have passed their qualifying examination from other Universities.
 - f. Migration Certificate, if applicable.
 - g. Caste certificate from the revenue authorities concerned in the case of SC/ST candidates. Any other documents required to be produced before the Head of Institution.
 - h. Community Certificate along with non-creamy layer certificate(as per Government rules) from the revenue authorities concerned in the case of SEBC candidates who claim reservation under SEBC category. The non-creamy layer certificate should not have been issued earlier than 12 months prior to the submission of application.
 - i. Community Certificate along with the relevant certificate from the revenue authorities concerned to the effect that they come under the Below Poverty Line (BPL) category of forward communities in the case of candidates who wish to avail of reservation under EBFC.

j. Candidates who wish to avail of bonus/weightage of marks shall produce the relevant certificates.

3. Tuition fee and other fees etc should be collected at the time of admission from the students who get admission in their first option. Fee should also be collected from those students who decide to seek permanent admission by cancelling the higher options. Fee should not be collected from students who retain higher options.
4. Annual Administration fee (applicable in the case of self financing programmes) due to the University shall be remitted by the management concerned and the same shall not be collected from the students.
5. SC/ST candidates who secure allotment through CAP and wish to retain their higher options shall be permitted to take provisional admission in all allotments upto the 1st special allotment.
6. Applicants who have been allotted to a particular college/programme on one of the lower options and wish to take permanent admission in the first/second allotment may be advised to cancel their higher options within the stipulated time so as to avoid their being considered for future allotments, which may be detrimental to their interests.
7. The original certificates of all permanently admitted students shall be kept in the respective institutions. In the case of candidates seeking temporary admission, the original certificates shall be returned to them after verification along with the allotment memo duly attested by the head of the institution as a proof of reporting for admission.
8. The security code provided at the top right hand corner of the allotment memo shall be entered in the admission portal along with other details of admitted candidates.
9. Minor errors occurred in entering the name of the candidate, community at the time of registration and errors in the date of birth while registering online may be ignored if the same has not affected the allotment in any way.
10. If a candidate discontinues his/her studies, the discontinue option shall be exercised forthwith.
11. An undertaking on whitepaper may be obtained from candidates seeking permanent admission, and should be admitted permanently using the 'Permanent Admission' option available in the online admission portal. Such students shall not be able to retain higher options.
12. All candidates seeking temporary admission should be admitted using the 'temporary admission' option available in the online admission portal. Such students shall be able to retain higher options.
13. The college authorities shall issue a 'confirmation slip' to the admitted candidate which shall be available after admitting the candidate through the 'Online Allotment Portal'.
14. College authorities should take utmost care to ensure that the details have been uploaded in the Online Admission Portal before the deadline stipulated by the University in respect of each allotment.
15. A candidate shall inevitably report for admission in the college allotted to him/her in the first instance and if desirous of availing higher options in the college of his/her choice shall not cancel higher options. A candidate who so desires to await his/her chance for admission in a college of his/her choice need not admit himself/herself to any college allotted as per his/her higher options during the course of each allotment and need to finalize his/her choice of college and seek permanent admission only in the third allotment.

Entry of details of admitted students to all quotas i.e., merit reservation, community and management shall be done on the date of admission itself and utmost care shall be taken while entering the details.
